

Never going back dropped D tuning

1)

D

She had the ticket and he was on the train, leaving in the morning in the pouring rain

G

D

He's looking down the tracks where he's already been

A7

G

D

And when she held him tight he knew he wasn't coming here again

2)

'Cause sometimes love gets in the way,
Your waiting for a chance just to have your say
But when the cards are down, it's just a matter of when
He couldn't look her in the face, 'cause he's never coming here again.

3)

He tried to laugh he held her tight
Said he'll do his very, very best to write
And she gave a little smile through her tears and the rain
But the song in her heart says he's never coming here again.

4)

Thought she was more than a one night stand
Could stop him from running with his country band
But she knew he'd never see any nappies on a line.
And when she turned away she knew he wasn't coming back this time x3